

Epidendrum confertum A. & S. nom. nov. E. prostratum Schltr. in Beihefte. Bot. Centralbl. 36 (1918) Abt. 2, p. 407, not E. prostratum (Lindl.) Cogn. in Mart. Fl. Bras. 3, pt. 5 (1898) 112.

The name Epidendrum prostratum was first applied by Cogniaux to Physinga prostrata Lindl., a plant of British Guiana.

The following collection appears to represent E. confertum.

COSTA RICA, Province of Heredia, Cerros de Zurquí, Northeast of San Isidro, Paul C. Standley & Juvenal Valerio 50830, March 3, 1926. 2000–2400 meters altitude. "On tree."
