

4. L. cochleata. LIP nearly circular, not spotted ; the lateral lobes long, rather acute ; the central flat, circular, emarginate, slightly crisp ; appendix entire, as large as the lateral lobes. COLUMN long, hairy. PETALS hairy.—Native country unknown. Flowers whole-coloured, deep orange ; the sepals and petals ovate, the latter obtuse and not much smaller than the former.